

*Covid continues to be found in about 1 in 45 people (at March 2022, source: BBC**.)*

We are following the policies of Welsh holiday letting agencies which are based on Welsh Guidance. These ensure high levels of safety and confidence for all, including guests and the local community.

Welsh Government Covid-19 Restrictions++

We ask you to commit to follow Welsh Government guidelines during your holiday.

- Please ensure that we are given an up to date list of all those planning to stay, no later than two weeks before arrival. You should notify us in advance of any extra people staying in the house.
- On the evening before your arrival, please check with all in your party, and confirm in writing (email or text) to us that none has had any symptoms for the past 14 days, or are in any way at risk, for example, by having been in close contact with someone with Covid-19.
- Please arrive after 4 pm, and to leave by 10:30 am on the final day.
- Should any of your party feel unwell during their stay they should take a Lateral Flow Test. If this is positive, we ask you to notify us immediately. Tests are still free in Wales if you have symptoms and you are asked to test by a doctor. Please see <https://gov.wales/get-tested-coronavirus-covid-19>

We commit to telling you immediately if anyone who has stayed in Erw Wen before you has had symptoms, or is in any way at risk.

You are already bringing your own linen and towels, which will help ensure your safety. There are protectors on all mattresses, duvets and pillows.

If you decide to bring other covers etc. of your own, please put ours back before you leave.

We advise you to also bring any other items you may need, such as your own sanitisation products.

You may wish to wash crockery, cutlery and kitchen equipment before use, though we obviously expect people to make sure that everything is clean before they leave.

There are additional instructions that you will find in Erw Wen on arrival, and we would be grateful if you would follow these.

Full details about the property are on our website at <https://erwwen.com>

We wish you a very enjoyable stay in Erw Wen!
